Letter of Recommendation Questions

1) Indicate who you are writing the letter for, and what your relationship is to this person.

2) Share how long you have known them, and what you think are the qualities of their personality, character, and life which would indicate their readiness and availability to participate in and complete the Vocal Sound Healing Academy 8-month Training. See Academy's inaugural class blogpost for information on the Training: https://vocalsoundhealer.com/announcing-vocal-sound-healing-academy-oct-22nd-2023-may-5th-2024/

3) Name what you know about this applicant regarding their experiences with sound and voice. If you have ever experienced sound and voice with this person in any context, share some details of your experience with them (please share from your heart).

4) Let me know anything else about this person or tell me a story about this person which would show me who they are through your eyes.

5) What would you expect this individual to contribute to the Vocal Sound Healing Academy, not only as a student, but also as a group member/community participant in the Training? Do you expect that they would be focused on completing their Academy tasks? Do you think they would work cohesively with the group in Training exercises?

6) Name anything else you would like me to know about this Vocal Sound Healing Academy applicant.

Thank You for supporting this applicant in writing your Letter of Recommendation!
